

●Admission policy of all faculties

Hagoromo University of International Studies (HUIS) seeks to grant admission to applicants who are ready to examine themselves, challenge themselves to the limit, and sincerely seek to create a concrete vision for their future, through various learning experiences inside and outside the university and through engagement and collaboration with people from various backgrounds.